Comments.

25X1

- (1) The troop trains [redacted] carried units of the Second Gds Wehr Army which returned to their home stations after completion of field exercises in the area north of Rathenow and at the Doeberitz troop training grounds.
- (2) The troop trains [redacted] carried components of the 1st Army Corps which had completed the field-exercises in the Rathenow area and moved to Letzlingen Heath to participate in the maneuvers of the Third Shock Army.
- (3) Some of the eight troop trains probably were [redacted] passing through Oranienburg toward Krennen. The trains reported in the present report carried units of the Fourth Gds Wehr Army which subsequently took part in the field exercises in the area south of Rathenow-Mennhausen. Most units of this army probably were to proceed by road from the Schwante railroad station near Krennen to the above training area.
